How to get these Day Passes?

You can get the day passes at the special ticket dispensers which you can find in every subway station. But the best way is to ask the station staff or the bus driver. (From the bus driver you can buy only the day ticket for busses.)

You can use or show the following phrases to buy the ticket.

We have these phrases listed up in the EventMobile “FAQs”

Just login and select the question, and show it to the staff or driver!

I want to buy one subway day pass (600yen).
地下鉄の1日乗車券(600円)を1枚ください。
(Chikatetsu no ichinichi-jyoshaken wo ichi-mai kudasai.)

I want to buy one bus day pass (500yen).
バスの1日乗車券(500円)を1枚ください。
(Bus no ichinichi-jyoshaken wo ichi-mai kudasai.)

I want to buy one "Kyoto one day pass" (1,200yen).
京都観光1日乗車券(1,200円)を1枚ください。
(Kyoto Kanko-ichinichi-jyoshaken wo ichi-mai kudasai.)

Kyoto Tourist Information Center

Here you can find useful information of Kyoto including accommodation, event tickets, and more which are provided in English, Chinese and Korean. The center is located at the 2nd floor of JR Kyoto Station Building.

Foreign Exchange

Cash is the most widely accepted method of payment. Foreign exchange can be performed in banks (look for signs in English), larger post offices and a limited number of hotels: there are no street-side bureaux de change in Kyoto.

Convenience Stores –“Konbini”-

You can find many convenience stores (Seven-eleven, Family mart, Lawson, Circle K/Sankus, etc) in Kyoto, nearly one store in every few blocks. They are usually open for 24 hours and safe even after mid-night. You can buy foods and bare necessities.

I'm lost, and I want to ask for the way to the conference venue...

Ask someone as:

京都国際会館（宝ヶ池）へ行く方法を教えてください。

(Kyoto kokusai-kaikan e iku houhou wo osiete kudasai)

Please tell me the way to the Kyoto International Conference Center (at Takaragaike).

Say “Ookini”

The regional word for ‘thank you’ in Kyoto is Ookini. If you switch to using Ookini instead of Arigato the locals will love you for it!

JR Rail Pass

JR railways provides the Japan Rail Pass which offers an incredibly economical way to travel throughout Japan by rail.
